It’s time for February History Night!

February 17 7:00pm
Palmer Moose Lodge

From the earliest tent-style roadhouses to today’s picturesque roadside lodges, Alaskan roadhouses are a colorful reminder of our state’s past.

Helen Hegener joins us to share her newest publication!

Also a sneak peek into her next book!

As always History Night is free, family friendly and open to the public!

See you there!

PALMER MOOSE LODGE

History Nights have begun!

We kicked off 2016 at our new location – Palmer Moose Lodge!

We are so thankful for the hospitality to Palmer Historical Society by the fine folks at the Moose Lodge!

Join us the 3rd Wednesday of the Month 7:00pm at the Moose Lodge!
One of our favorite storytellers, Clyde Oberg, enthralled us with his story. His story includes wife June, who happily added to their story with many fun and interesting facts.

We could have listened to Clyde for a week or more – a great and inspiring legacy Clyde has!

Clyde remembers:

* $750.00 for two lots in Anchorage near Spenard
* a blind date with a cute girl named June
* a trip up the Alcan riding on the front of the rig with wife June
* working 13 hours a day, 7 days a week
* working at the Co-Op for $1.50 an hour for Frank Clark
* $1.50 for a night at the Colony Inn
* 1959 bottling powdered milk for the military
* the Dairy farm being a great place to raise the 6 kids
  ("all boys except for 5")
* People farming took over Dairy Farming
* a highlight of his life - serving in Nigeria and Grenada with the family

The evening wrapped up with delicious treats and wonderful hospitality provided by June Oberg!

June is famous for her cinnamon rolls among other delightful treasured homemade sweets!

We sure do appreciate the Oberg’s and all they give - time, talents and treats - to make our History Nights delicious!

Picture taken at Colony Inn at a fund raiser for PHS – June is always happily willing to spoil us!
We took a few minutes at the beginning of our January History Night to hold the Palmer Historical Society 2016 Annual Meeting—which included counting moose for delicious chocolate prizes!

A power point presentation of the happenings of 2015 gave an overview of what it takes to Promote Preserve Protect the History of our special town—Palmer.

A vote was taken for the Board of Directors. Each 2015 Board Member retained their Director position for 2016.

We had amazing History Nights in 2015 & look forward to 2016 for more of the same!

This is a bit of how we Promote Preserve & Protect the history of Palmer.
